October 27, 2016

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

For nearly one million people throughout the Archdiocese of Chicago, Catholic Charities has become A Place of Mercy—a fitting theme for the following pages of Catholic Charities 2016 Annual Report. By proclaiming this a Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis has asked each of us to be the hands of God’s mercy in our often violent and poverty-stricken world. Mercy can overcome any type of adversity and instill hope for the future.

At the beginning of the Jubilee Year, the Holy Father requested that cathedrals and churches around the globe open Holy Doors of Mercy that can be visited in every diocese. A door is symbolic of a passage to something new, and opening a door is an invitation to cross over, to enter a different space. By passing through a Holy Door of Mercy, we are invited to enter a place where God’s mercy and mercy for others shapes our hearts and our actions. By entering this new space, our lives and the lives of those we encounter are forever changed.

In much the same way, the people who cross the thresholds of the doors to Catholic Charities are also invited to a place of mercy—a place where they can receive the help they need to change their lives forever. With more than 150 programs and 153 service locations throughout Cook and Lake counties, there are many thresholds to be crossed, and many opportunities for lives to be changed for the better. Every 30 seconds someone knocks on the doors of Catholic Charities, and thanks to the generosity of donors and volunteers, their knocks are always answered with warmth, kindness, and concrete help.

With sincere gratitude I would like to thank Catholic Charities Board of Directors and Board of Advisors, Junior Board members and the thousands of volunteers, committee members, and donors throughout the Archdiocese of Chicago, who support Catholic Charities efforts through their generous service and donations. A special thank you goes to our Catholic parishes, schools and institutions for their dedicated support. I would also like to recognize the many government, professional and social service organizations with whom we collaborate throughout the year. Finally, I am particularly grateful to Monsignor Michael Boland and the nearly 3,000 staff members of Catholic Charities for creating A Place of Mercy for our neighbors in need.

May God bless you for your commitment to Catholic Charities and all those it serves. With every good wish, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Blase J. Cupich
Dear Friends of Catholic Charities,

This 99th year of Catholic Charities service to those in need has partially taken place during the Jubilee Year of Mercy. When Pope Francis declared this the Jubilee Year of Mercy, he did so with great hope that the power of God’s mercy could transform our world. He humbly called on each one of us to reach out, embrace, and heal those who are deeply wounded by poverty, burdened by sorrow, or surrounded by violence. Catholic Charities mercifully heeds the Holy Father’s call, raising up our brothers and sisters in need, and transforming the world...one person, one family at a time.

Pope Francis has used a powerful image of the Church as “field hospitals.” During war, field hospitals are situated right on battlegrounds—close to the wounded who need help. Similarly, as part of the Church in the Archdiocese of Chicago, Catholic Charities 153 service locations are very much like field hospitals, helping those who are suffering, and often located in neighborhoods that have sadly become like real battlegrounds, plagued with violence and despair. Catholic Charities program sites are safe havens in desperate areas, and our staff and volunteers are truly ministers of mercy, providing help through a hot meal, a bag of food, a place to live, the care of a child or elderly relative, counseling, job training, or job placement. In total, nearly one million people this year including seniors, children, teens, veterans, immigrants, refugees, and anyone needing a helping hand, relied on Catholic Charities.

Catholic Charities programs are possible because of the generosity of our supporters. I am very grateful to our devoted volunteers, board members, corporate and government partners, private foundations, parishes, and individual donors who help us remain a place of mercy in Cook and Lake counties. I would also like to take this opportunity to thank our supporters for their prayers, advocacy, and supplemental financial contributions during the Illinois state budget impasse. Thus far, Catholic Charities has been able to weather the budget storm without cutting vital services to fragile populations. As we look to the future, however, it is imperative that our state leaders pass a budget immediately, and we continue to ask for your prayers and support.

As we close our 99th year of service and begin preparations for our centennial celebration, we know that it is truly a blessing that Catholic Charities has become A Place of Mercy to those in great need. For nearly 100 years, Catholic Charities has worked in partnership with faithful supporters to provide the transforming love, compassion, and professional help needed to propel our brothers and sisters to a new life—one filled with hope and dignity.

Sincerely,

Rev. Monsignor Michael M. Boland

FY2016 HIGHLIGHTS
An A Year of Mercy
“A LITTLE BIT OF MERCY MAKES THE WORLD LESS COLD AND MORE JUST.”

Pope Francis
“There are things I don’t like about my community. There are too many drugs being sold, too much garbage in the streets, and too many gang-bangers killing kids. Peace Corner is a safe place for me and my friends. I like being here and I want it to stay open for as long as possible.”

Every three hours someone is shot in Chicago. One of the most violent neighborhoods in the city, Austin, is also home to Catholic Charities newest program, the Peace Corner Youth Center. The center is one of the few safe places for children in the neighborhood and was in danger of closing when we welcomed it to our family of programs.

More than 100 youth come to Peace Corner for safety, to learn, to grow into young adults in a community where sadly too many children see their friends shot and fallen into the darkness of gang life. They find companionship and support at the center. Without Peace Corner, many of these children would be lost to the streets. Catholic Charities expanded the programming to include regular basketball games and activities with the local police district to foster trust, a youth job training program, a summer camp, volunteer tutoring and mentoring, and expansion of the center’s computer lab and library. The youth are resilient and determined, and with Catholic Charities they have found A Place of Mercy.
“After calling for rental assistance, I inquired about winter clothes for my children and food. The operator connected me to other resources including food pantries and all of it was so helpful as I left my abusive relationship and was struggling to provide for my children.”

In times of desperation, Catholic Charities is on the other end of the line, patiently listening to stories filled with fear and uncertainty. The Catholic Charities Homelessness Prevention Call Center is a lifeline of Mercy to people living on the edge. They call for any number of reasons – a lost job, unforeseen medical bill, a personal crisis – hoping that in their time of desperation we will ensure they do not lose their apartment or home and be forced to move to a shelter. They need short-term help, they know within a month or two they will be back on their feet and able to pay their rent and utility bills. This year, the Notre Dame Lab for Economic Opportunities studied the Call Center and proved the assistance works. In fact, when a person calls the Catholic Charities Homelessness Prevention Call Center and qualifies to receive short term financial assistance to pay their rent or utility bills they are 76% less likely to enter a shelter within six months. The average amount of assistance provided: $1,000. This small amount of funding saves more than $20,000 in government funding that is spent when a person enters a shelter. Catholic Charities hotline is a beacon of hope and A Place of Mercy for thousands of families every year.
“When I arrived at House of Good Shepherd with my four children I was scared and unsure of our future. It was the dead of winter and we had been sleeping in my friend’s car. My case worker helped me secure a full time job, safe housing and started my first savings account. I know I can provide for my children and we are now safe. I thank God for a program like the House of the Good Shepherd.”

Domestic violence, whether it is physical, financial or emotional, holds people hostage. At the House of Good Shepherd, women are walking through the doors seeking A Place of Mercy and comfort. Since 1867 the Good Shepherd Sisters have cared for the marginalized and those suffering from abuse. When the Sisters feared they could no longer provide the necessary support to the women and children in their care, they turned to Catholic Charities. This year we welcomed the House of Good Shepherd to our family of programs and sites. The women and children now have access to Catholic Charities wider breadth of programming specific for those suffering from abuse, including legal assistance, translation and interpretation, education, child care, and financial management courses. The women enter the shelter frightened, uncertain of their future and leave healed and in recovery, knowing they have the continued support of Catholic Charities as they begin their lives free from violence and poverty.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD CHAIR

October 27, 2016

Dear Friends of Catholic Charities:

This past year we have faced unprecedented challenges. As Catholic Charities entered its 99th year of service to those most in need, the State of Illinois budget impasse threatened to eliminate the most critical programs that support thousands of people in need across the state. This financial crisis has already caused an unthinkable 91% of state social service agencies to cut services or close their doors.

Through it all, Catholic Charities has remained a beacon of hope and A Place of Mercy for those who had nowhere else to turn. With your support, Catholic Charities has remained steadfast in its mission of helping those in need regardless of race, religion or background.

Pope Francis declared this year a Jubilee Year of Mercy. A Jubilee Year of Mercy reminds us of our own personal vocation every year to live the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. But how can we more fully respond to this call of God’s Mercy in our lives? I can think of no better way to live out a mission of mercy than working with and supporting Catholic Charities. When we open our hearts to their work, we will encounter and be filled with opportunities to respond to God’s call for Mercy.

Catholic Charities has come a long way in its nearly 100 year history, from our roots of raising funds for the various Catholic social services and institutions and serving as caretaker for orphans and unwanted children, to now touching the lives of nearly 1 million of the most vulnerable in our communities, including children and families, hungry and homeless, seniors, veterans, and the immigrants and refugees.

With more than 150 programs at 153 locations throughout Cook and Lake counties, Catholic Charities is truly A Place of Mercy throughout the Archdiocese. We are intentionally in the most desperate communities, going where God has called us to help those most in need, those most in need of hope.

I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to serve with you and for your support of Catholic Charities and its the staff of nearly 3,000. With your support, Catholic Charities will continue to provide hope and mercy to those we are called to help.

Sincerely,

Timothy J. Rivelli

“LET US BECOME AGENTS OF THIS MERCY.”

Pope Francis
For nearly a century, Catholic Charities has faced many challenges and weathered the storms of unpredictability. In fact, the agency was founded in 1917 just weeks after the United States entered the First World War. In partnership with friends and supporters, we have overcome challenges to help those most in need.

This past year we faced an unprecedented challenge: the State of Illinois budget impasse. Due to nonpayment on state-contracted services, the impasse threatened to undermine the decades of effective, impactful public-private partnerships that help the most vulnerable of our neighbors. In fact, 91% of social service agencies in the state closed or greatly reduced programming.

Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Chicago launched the Keeping Hope Alive initiative in the spring of 2016 to raise funds to sustain our most at-risk programs and services.

In this year of Mercy, Catholic Charities was blessed to have our supporters step forward with commitments to meet this goal, as is reflected in our financials. As the state budget is resolved, funds raised during Keeping Hope Alive will be transferred to our endowment to help ensure our agency’s impact for the next century and beyond.

“GOD’S MERCY IS A GREAT LIGHT OF LOVE AND TENDERNESS.”

Pope Francis
The critically important work of Catholic Charities to serve anyone in need, without regard to their religious, ethnic, or economic background, is made possible through the generous support of our donors.

FOUNDATIONS, CORPORATIONS & ORGANIZATIONS
During FY2016, 1,200 of our foundation, corporate, and organizational partners contributed over 2,000 gifts totaling more than $7.5 million. The following are a few of the foundation, corporate, and organizational partners who have helped advance our work to empower individuals and families in need as they seek to realize their full potential:

- Lloyd A. Fry Foundation supported an innovative collaboration between Catholic Charities and Sinai Health System’s Holy Cross Hospital to better coordinate services, improve health outcomes, reduce costs and prevent unnecessary hospital readmissions.
- Chicago Community Trust strengthened our efforts to address basic human needs through our continuum of services to prevent and end homelessness for individuals and families in need.
- Help Them to Hope, Inc. assisted our efforts to help Lake County residents meet their immediate basic needs that are provided through our Emergency Assistance, HIV/AIDS, Family Self-Sufficiency and Housing Case Management programs.
- Westlake Health Foundation continued their support of our efforts in Proviso Township to provide education and supportive services to parenting teens and expectant teen parents (male and female).
- Fred B. Snite Foundation aided individuals and families in need through our Emergency Assistance Department and through their support of our Maternity and Adoption Program.

WAYS TO GIVE

CASH
Cash donations of any size are gratefully accepted. Mail your check to: Catholic Charities, 75 Remittance Drive, Ste. 1623, Chicago, IL 60675-1623.

CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITIES
Make a gift and receive secure, stable income for life. With our high payout rates, you may receive more income than you are currently earning from your investments.

CORPORATE GIVING
For many companies, giving to Catholic Charities is a compelling way to support the communities where they do business and their employees and customers live. Make a program grant, sponsor a special event, do a food or clothing drive, or volunteer for a project.

EVENTS
Become involved in one of more than 31 fundraising events as an individual or corporate sponsor, a ticket or table purchaser, a member of the committee, or a volunteer.

IN-KIND GIFTS
Bring gently-worn clothes, small household goods, and food to 721 N. LaSalle in Chicago or to any of our regional offices.

IRA CHARITABLE ROLLOVER
If you are 70½ or older, you may give up to $100,000 per year directly from your IRA to charities. A “qualified charitable distribution” generates neither taxable income nor a tax deduction, and can satisfy all or part of your required minimum distribution. We have a sample letter you can send to your IRA custodian to initiate the transfer.

MATCHING GIFTS
Ask your employer if a matching gift program is offered. You may be able to double or triple your generosity with a matching gift.

MONTHLY GIVING
Your credit card or bank account can be automatically charged each month. You can enroll online at www.catholiccharities.net/donate or ask us to mail the sign-up form.

ONLINE GIVING
Online giving is safe, secure and fast. Go to www.catholiccharities.net/donate.

PLANNED GIFTS
To help future generations, name Catholic Charities as a beneficiary of your will, trust, retirement account, or insurance policy. You become a member of our Legacy of Hope Society when you include us in your estate plans.

STOCKS & SECURITIES
Gifts of appreciated stock may result in tax savings for you. Give your broker our DTC#0010 for credit to account #2437010 for “Catholic Charities Chicago.” Our broker is Brown Brothers Harriman, (312) 781-7140.

TRIBUTE GIFTS
You can make a donation in honor or in memory of a loved one or celebrate a special occasion. We will send a card on your behalf.

VEHICLE DONATIONS
We accept cars, trucks, boats, RVs and even golf carts! Pick-up is free and we do all the paperwork. Call (877) 786-4483 or visit www.catholiccharities.net/donate.

As a generous benefactor, you have unique priorities and reasons for giving. There are many ways to give, and each gift will be carefully used as directed. For answers to your questions about giving, contact Judith M. Silekis, Director of Development, at (312) 655-7289 or jsilekis@catholicharities.net.
“...A PLACE OF MERCY AND HOPE, WHERE EVERYONE IS WELCOMED, LOVED, AND FORGIVEN.”
