

CATHOLIC CHARITIES OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Tuesday Night Suppers

Overview

Every Tuesday night, the hungry and homeless turn to Catholic Charities for hot meals at the St. Vincent Center, 721 N. LaSalle Street in Chicago. These sit-down dinners provide food to 130 guests, and to go meals are provided for more than 50 additional individuals. Whether supper guests are single adults living on the streets or families struggling to make ends meet, all are welcome to a free, nutritious meal.

For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me...

Matthew 25:35

Services

Tuesday Night Suppers serve as an entry point for many of the other services offered by Catholic Charities. For the first time, many guests learn that there are programs to help and people who care. Services offered include:

- MEDICAL screenings, vaccinations, resources, and more
- HOUSING through Street to Home, intensive case management for the chronically homeless; rides to shelter following the supper; and information on housing options
- LEGAL ASSISTANCE offered on the second Tuesday of every month
- SELF SUFFICIENCY TRAINING through After Supper Visions, a photography program with proceeds benefiting the artists

Volunteer

Community involvement makes all the difference. Volunteers from local churches and groups staff the suppers by manning the food line, serving drinks and food, and by simply being a friendly face. To volunteer, email volunteer@catholiccharities.net.
