Summer Youth Employment Program

Overview

The Summer Youth Employment Program is a seven-week employment and job-readiness training for low-income, high-risk youth throughout the city of Chicago. Students are provided with mentors and role models, meaningful work experiences, and opportunities to reinforce a strong work ethic. The goal of the program is to enhance interpersonal skills and increase employability skills.

Catholic Charities Summer Youth Employment Program partners with the city of Chicago's One Summer Chicago Plus to provide youth who live in high crime neighborhoods where gang violence is common with educational and professional work experiences. Neighborhoods and communities served include Englewood, Cicero, Berwyn, and Greater Grand Crossing. Additionally, these programs address how the youth can work to change their neighborhood for the better.
