

CATHOLIC CHARITIES OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Cooke's Manor

WHAT

Cooke's Manor residence is a transitional living program in an alcohol/drug free environment for recovering male veterans who have completed an inpatient or intensive outpatient treatment program within the last 12 months. They also need 30 days of verifiable clean drops. Cooke's Manor enables a resident to rebuild his life; become responsible and disciplined; become financially stable; and re-enter society and the working world as an independent and respected citizen. The residence consists of 40 private rooms; the common area consists of a communal kitchen, recreation room, and laundry facilities.

WHERE

Cooke's Manor is located at Building 14 on the Hines VA Campus in Hines, Illinois 60141. The campus entrance is located at 5th Avenue and Roosevelt Road.

FOR WHOM

Eligible male veterans who have completed a successful period of sobriety and be capable of independent living.

SUPPORT SERVICES

Cooke's Manor provides a clean, safe, structured environment with nutritious meals. The residents receive comprehensive assessments, ongoing case management and individualized addiction counseling. These services include outside speakers, on-site recovery groups, education, employment training (including resumé preparation), housing assistance, budget planning, and aftercare.
