

Answering the Call

One person, one heart at a time

2021 Annual Report

“For I was hungry and you gave me food,
I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.”

Matthew 25:35-37

Our Purpose

We are called to serve and accompany the vulnerable, the suffering, and the overlooked; strengthen and empower people, families, and communities; foster an awareness of our shared humanity; and challenge indifference.

Those We Serve

To the extent we are able, we are called to accompany anyone in need, regardless of their faith, gender, race, or ethnicity.

On the cover: Catholic Charities employees and volunteers remain our heroes, rising to the ongoing challenges of the pandemic to maintain programs and services to hundreds of thousands of clients of all ages. Guests greet each other at the Catholic Charities Western Cook Regional Service food pantry in Cicero.

One guest at a time.

Since 2002, the Catholic Charities After Supper Visions program has encouraged guests of our community suppers to express their perspectives and creativity through photography. Artists receive cameras, attend photography classes, and exhibit and sell their work online.

In 2021, the extraordinary ceased to be so. And, like we have for more than 100 years, the Catholic Charities community adapted, doubled down, and continued our mission to serve all, wherever and whenever we are needed.

Even as the disruption from the pandemic begins to quiet, for many we serve, the hardships of this period continue. Demand for our services has doubled and even tripled in some instances. Yet, the simple truth is that the outsized vulnerabilities and inequities that were brought to the forefront during this crisis existed long before COVID-19 and will persist long thereafter.

This is why our calling—to witness a message of mercy and hope to a world in need—is so necessary and enduring. Guided by the Mission of Charity and the practice of mercy, Catholic Charities provides a welcoming hand, a deeper conversation, and a safe harbor for hundreds of thousands of our neighbors in need each year, regardless of their faith, gender, age, race, or ethnicity. As the Church teaches us, charity and mercy are shared one person, one heart at a time.

As our financials on page 9 show, we were fortunate to set a fundraising record for a second year in a row. Your generosity is gradually allowing us to reduce our reliance on government funding—and the restrictions that come with it. As we deepen our relationship with you, we will be able to touch our clients' lives in new ways and with more impact.

We thank you—our donors, who sustained us financially this past year; our prayer partners, who sustained us spiritually; and our partners in mission, who helped us to enable and vitalize the spirit of witness among so many people.

In gratitude for the many blessings this organization receives each day,

Sally Blount, Ph.D.
President & CEO

One senior at a time.

Our concern for the health, safety, and vitality of our senior clients has remained central to our calling during the pandemic.

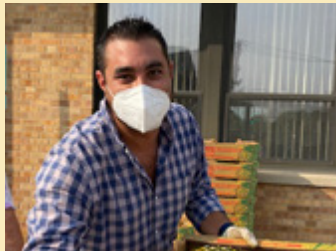

Catholic Charities teams have continued to serve each day, assisting with senior housing, day care, protective services, food pick-up and delivery, wellness checks, and vaccination drives.

One employee at a time.

Identified as essential workers, Catholic Charities front-line employees endeavored to keep our programs operating while COVID-19 had a profound impact on the communities we serve. With heightened safety protocols in place, our teams remained active and prepared to serve those in need, offering mercy and hope when all else may have seemed lost. Continually training staff in key roles across the organization has been critical to our success.

Accompanying each client, guest, fellow traveler, from a place of compassion and respect.

With a commitment to excellence in how we serve, Catholic Charities meets clients where they are. From our six regional hubs, 80+ sites, and 180 partner locations, we offer nourishment, counseling, shelter, and other critical services to our most vulnerable neighbors regardless of their faith, gender, race, or ethnicity.

One conversation at a time.

Demand for mental health counseling surged during 2021. For residents of Chicago's west side living through the epidemic of gun violence, the Encompassing Center stands as a beacon of hope. At the Center, Catholic Charities therapists and case workers provide therapy, substance abuse counseling, and case management services. They are specially trained to work with individuals who have experienced trauma with the aim of helping them move forward with positive goals for the future.

One home visit at a time.
 During the pandemic, our visits to homebound older adults doubled. Catholic Charities provided warm meals to nearly 10,000 seniors every week.

One family at a time.

Violence does not happen in a vacuum. Catholic Charities domestic violence programming addresses the effects of trauma on the whole family through a range of programs, including tailored social and emotional supports and academic assistance for the children living in our shelters.

One meal at a time.

Catholic Charities community suppers are a longstanding tradition. Welcoming all, we serve more than 83,000 meals a year to anyone who crosses our door. When the pandemic took hold and food insecurity increased even more, we didn't pause, switching instead to distributing food parcels to our guests.

One brighter day at a time.

We embrace a trauma-informed approach to working with our clients and supporting our staff. Our counseling programs use a range of techniques to create a safe environment, offer treatment that encompasses both the heart and mind, and foster an authentic sense of trust.

One young learner at a time.

For working and learning parents, quality affordable childcare is a necessity. Catholic Charities' early learning and afterschool programming provides a safe and welcoming environment for children to thrive.

100% of donations to Catholic Charities go directly to our mission and charitable works.

We are financially independent from the Archdiocese of Chicago. We do not donate to the Archdiocese, nor do we regularly accept funds from them, except when their donors designate gifts to support our work. Our donors, and those we serve, represent a range of faith backgrounds and robust diversity. We are proud of our Platinum GuideStar rating as an independent nonprofit.

We are fully responsible for securing our own funding. We rely on mission-driven individuals like you to join us in caring for our vulnerable neighbors, many of whom are newly struggling and in need. With your help, we provide coordinated services to those who seek more stable and peaceful lives.

Catholic Charities receives government funding, but your support allows us to expand our footprint, innovate programs, and give witness to our mission. We are a go-to partner for government and civic leaders, particularly in times of need, but local, state, and federal budgets for human services are on the decline. Government funds received by Catholic Charities have fallen by more than 40% in real terms over the last decade, while demand for our services grows exponentially.

We invite you to speak with our Institutional Advancement team about supporting our work. Call (312) 655 7508 or email our team at Donations@CatholicCharities.net.

Catholic Charities fulfills the Church's role in the mission of charity to anyone in need by providing compassionate and professional services that strengthen and support individuals, families, and communities based on the value and dignity of human life.
